THE LIGHT

THE STORY

The Engels family, based in the bustling heart of Berlin, is a tumultuous and fractured unit consisting of parents Milena and Tim, both in their late forties, 17-year-old twins Frieda and Jon, and 8-year-old Dio. Each of them is struggling with their own personal chaos after losing the common bond that once held them together as a family. When Syrian immigrant Farrah enters their lives as a housekeeper, she unexpectedly sets the disparate family on a new track. Quickly, each family member forms a profound and enigmatic connection with Farrah, falling individually for her focused yet mysterious persona. The Engels gradually unveil their past wounds and fractures to Farrah and they start to reconnect with each other after years of estrangement. But ultimately, they understand that Farrah has been seeking their family for a long time and is now leading them on a journey into the unknown.

THE DIRECTOR

Tom Tykwer is one of Germany’s most respected film directors. After his breakout hit Run Lola Run (1998) he directed Heaven (2002), Perfume: The Story of a Murderer (2006), and The International (2009), starring Clive Owen, Naomi Watts and Armin Mueller-Stahl among others. He collaborated with The Wachowskis as co-director for Cloud Atlas (2012) with Tom Hanks and the Netflix series Sense 8 (2015–2018) and worked as a composer on the score for Lana Wachowski’s The Matrix Resurrections (2021). He also is the co-creator of the internationally acclaimed German television series Babylon Berlin (since 2017).

DIRECTOR’S NOTE

After nearly a decade which I’ve spent with Babylon Berlin, I can finally return to the present day with a story that speaks from my heart. A profoundly dysfunctional family is saved by a mysterious intruder. But she is asking for an unexpected favour in return.

The Light aims to be an intense, sweeping, humorous, thoughtful and aesthetically challenging film experience. We’re portraying people of today and we’re confronting them with the intensity of our present age. The characters argue, struggle and fight with each other, but they also laugh, sing and dance. Which represents the spectrum of the show. It’s about us, it’s about our madness and beauty. So I’ve tried to make a mad, beautiful film.

THE STORY

Isabell’s life takes a turn when it becomes apparent that her aging parents can no longer live independently. While searching for care staff and navigating her complicated marriage with Philippe, she shuttles between Berlin and her parents’ weekend house—a striking modernist home her father built in his better days. There, Isabell repeatedly encounters the enigmatic Anja, a single mother struggling to make ends meet. As Anja and her young daughter, Greta, weave themselves into Isabell’s life, an unexpected bond begins to form. Yet Isabell feels increasingly uncertain about the life she thought she knew. As the lines blur, Isabell’s sense of control falters, and she starts to feel the ground shifting beneath her.

THE DIRECTOR

Born in Berlin, Ina Weisse is an accomplished actress, screenwriter, and director whose career spans more than three decades across theatre, television, and film. Trained at the Otto Falckenberg School in Munich, Weisse’s versatility and dedication have earned her numerous national and international awards. Weisse studied philosophy in Heidelberg before honing her craft as a director at the University of Hamburg. It was there she made her first major mark with Alles Anders, a short film that garnered the First Steps Award in 2002. Her feature film debut, The Architect (2008), starring Josef Bierbichler, showcased her keen storytelling ability and won the Max Ophüls Award for Best Screenplay, among other distinctions. In 2017, Weisse turned her discerning eye to documentary filmmaking, delivering an acclaimed portrait of Berlin’s iconic building, The Neue Nationalgalerie. Her gripping psychological drama The Audition premiered to great acclaim at the Toronto Film Festival in 2019 and went on to screen at numerous film festivals worldwide. The film’s searing intensity and layered performances drew widespread praise, with Nina Hoss earning Best Actress accolades at both the San Sebastián and Stockholm film festivals.

DIRECTOR’S NOTE

What intrigues me are the nuances in how the two women approach each other—watching, retreating, eyeing each other with suspicion, then slowly drawing closer again. It’s about their mutual unmasking across social barriers and also about the broader question of what happens to people as they get increasingly older: How do their children care for them without giving up their own lives?

THE STORY

Ten friends, three years, seven parties: When Ellen attends her best friends' New Year's Eve party in 2019, she's keeping a secret. She is having an affair with Sebastian, whom she believes to be her great love. However, he is married to Eva and naturally wants to keep it under wraps. There's a spark between Rolf and Dina. There's tension between Mareike and Adam. Maya longs for children, and Natalie can't make up her mind. Then Max shows up. He would love Ellen if only she would let him. Years pass, and parties are celebrated as they come. There is love, arguments, laughter, and weddings. Children are born, people find each other while others separate. Finally, fate serves as a reminder: Life must be lived intensely, with the best of friends and ideally in every single moment!

THE DIRECTOR

David Dietl studied directing at the dffb ( Deutsche Film und Fernsehakademie Berlin ). His graduation project, König von Deutschland (2013), marked his feature film debut as both writer and director. In 2016, he directed the TV movie Ella's Baby, the first collaboration with screenwriter Elena Senft. He then turned his attention to Berlin's most legendary bouncers in the documentary film Berlin Bouncer, which celebrated its world premiere at the 2019 Berlin International Film Festival. In 2019, his comedy Rate Your Date was released in German cinemas. It was followed by the Sky series Funeral for a Dog, which he directed together with Barbara Albert, and the fictional series about FC Bayern, Good Friends – The Rise of FC Bayern. Long Story Short celebrated its World Premiere as the Opening Film of the Tallinn Film Festival in 2024.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Long Story Short is a film about life, love, friendship, and how we handle them. How well do we really know each other after all the years, and how easily do we lose touch, even though we've been friends for so long? How difficult is it to confide in each other and to trust one another? The story deals with the disappointments we suffer and the expectations we carry. It's also about continuing to hope for true love, not letting broken relationships take away our idealism or hope. Told over the course of seven partys and three years the film has a unique dramatic structure using one of the most important and exciting cinematic techniques: elliptical storytelling! The film is as funny and tragic as life itself.

THE STORY

Pay a tax, get it refunded twice, and claim it's legal: that's a Cum-Ex deal. Young lawyer Sven Lebert and his boss Dr. Bernd Hausner expand this scheme to private investors, developing a global network of banks, lawyers, and investors that steal billions from European citizens. In Denmark, tax officials Inger Brögger and Niels Jensen watch helplessly as state funds vani with little support from bankers or politicians. When Niels faces financial struggles and personal pressures, he loses his moral compass and joins the scheme. In Germany, District Attorney Lena Birkwald uncovers the massive fraud and faces fierce resistance from ban and politicians. Determined to prevent the usual outcome—where minor players are caught while the masterminds walk free—she fights tirelessly to bring those truly responsible to justice.

THE STORY

In 1307, the Holy Roman Empire faces upheaval as its hold on Europe weakens. The Austrian Habsburgs seize the opportunity to expand, subjugating Switzerland. Amid this chaos, huntsman William Tell crosses paths with a farmer fleeing after killing a tyrannical Austrian governor. Reluctantly agreeing to help, Tell becomes entangled in the growing Swiss resistance. The conflict intensifies when Austrian Viceroy Gessler forces Tell to shoot an apple from his son's head for defying authority. Threatened and cornered, Tell has no choice but to fight. What begins as a reluctant act of defiance turns into leadership, as Tell rises to spearhead the Swiss resistance against Austrian oppression, igniting a fight for freedom that will change history.

THE DIRECTOR

Nick Hamm is a BAFTA award-winning director and producer who began his career as resident director for the Royal Shakespeare Company. He has directed highly successful feature films for Miramax, Film 4, Pathé and Lionsgate. His track records include Driven, which was selected as the closing film at the Venice Film Festival 2018 and released by Universal, Gigi & Nate (2022), the Netflix series White Lines (2020) and The Journey, starring Timothy Spall and Colm Meaney and which premiered at the Venice and Toronto Film Festivals in 2016.

THE STORY

Twenty-two year old Nollaig has secured an internship at the UN in Geneva with the help of her well-connected uncle Nigel, staying with the elegantly-pressed and affluent Helen and David Wilcox and their two young children. The Wilcox world is a masquerade of opulent wealth and privilege, and Nollaig quickly tips the dynamic in the house, with Helen becoming particularly drawn to her new guest. Nollaig's own fascination takes a turn as she begins to steal diamonds from the family – using techniques learnt from Nigel – swallowing the jewels whole. Mineral and flesh, absorbing the very nutrient of their wealth, Nollaig's actions begin to strip the Wilcox family back to their true selves.

THE STORY

In the heart of a quaint Småland village, the grumpy Ingmar lives a strictly regimented life. Ever since his wife Inger passed away a few years ago, his relationship with his daughter has deteriorated. The only things left in his life are his annoying, divorced neighbour and his late wife's roses, the only thing he still cares to nurture.

As the hottest and driest summer in living memory drags on, everyone waits for rain that never seems to come. But through what might be a miracle or sheer coincidence, Ingmar finds himself thrust into the spotlight of an event that will change not only his life but the entire village's fate — perhaps even the world.

THE STORY

A blazing summer in post-war England. Robert is 16, the shy, nature loving son of a miner. Before he follows his father down the pit, he sets out to explore the countryside and see a little more of the world. He gets as far as Dulcie, a hard drinking, foul-mouthed, bohemian recluse several times his age. Under her eccentric tutelage, his life opens up to rich food, poetry, girls and the possibility that there may be more to living than duty and mining. But while Dulcie's cottage and garden by the sea are idyllic, this place holds a tragic secret about Dulcie's great love. When Robert discovers the truth, his brave and tender friendship compels Dulcie to open her own heart and re-engage with the world. Their encounter is a riotous clash of experience, personality and perspective which will leave them both forever changed.

THE NOISE OF TIME

Two-time Academy Award-winning Christopher Hampton adapts Julian Barnes' masterpiece on D. Shostakovich into a riveting neo-noir thriller that is strikingly relevant today. Academy Award-nominee Jan Komasa directs.

BY JAN KOMASA

THE STORY

Moscow, 1936. At the age of 29, Dmitri Shostakovich ranks among the Soviet Union's most eminent composers. His works are performed the world over. But Stalin's Great Purge has been set in motion. Shostakovich's opera 'Lady Macbeth of Mtsensk' is disapproved by Stalin and the artist denounced by the communist party's publication 'Pravda'. While he is expecting his arrest and execution on a nightly basis, his only defenses are the staunch support of his wife Nita, his faithful friends and his own brand of deadpan gallows humour. And though he's saved from becoming another victim of the Great Terror, he will be firmly under the thumb of despotism: He is forced to represent Soviet values at a cultural conference in New York City, he is forced to join the Party, and he is forced to constantly weigh appeasement of those in power against the integrity of his music. When ultimately, his 'Fourth Symphony' is allowed to premiere, it's a triumph. And after years of absurd confusion, confrontation and concession, Shostakovich prevails: "Art is the whisper of history, heard above the noise of time."

THE STORY

Sara (25) should be preparing for her first jazz concert in New York, where she has lived for four years. Instead, she returns to her hometown in the Pyrenees, Huesca, Spain, after her father Julio (55) dies suddenly. She and her sister Elena (27), who works in livestock farming, inherit a farm and a flock of ecological sheep. While handling inheritance paperwork, Sara is burdened by grief and guilt. She finds solace in visiting her grandfather Mauro (87) in a nursing home, maintaining the comforting lie that Julio is still alive. When Elena wants to sell the flock, Sara opposes and cancels her concert to keep her father's legacy alive. She connects with Tina (46), a vet and Julio's girlfriend, and becomes involved in ecological farming. Despite her hard work, Sara feels the emptiness of a life she didn't choose. She realizes she must forgive herself, accept the present without her father, and reclaim her own path.
